

Honoring Alan Blueford

Communities, Families, Students and Labor Unite to Stop Police Brutality and Racial Profiling

Keynote Speaker:
Angela Davis

Join noted author and activist Angela Davis with Adam and Jeralynn Blueford in honoring their son Alan Blueford for what would have been his nineteenth birthday. Alan was murdered by OPD officer Miguel Masso on May 6, 2012, just weeks before he was to graduate from Skyline High School in Oakland.

Tuesday, December 18
From 7pm - 9pm

Laney College Theater
900 Fallon Street, Oakland
One block from Lake Merritt BART station

This event will bring together family members of victims of police brutality with important activists from across the country to both honor our fallen youth and chart a course for stopping the epidemic of racial profiling and police abuse especially targeting Black and Brown communities.

Tickets are $10 general/$5 student and low-income.
Available at www.BrownPaperTickets.com or at the door.
No one turned away for lack of funds.
All proceeds go to Justice for Alan Blueford Coalition (JAB).
Donations are tax deductible.

Speakers include:

Jeralynn and Adam Blueford, Constance Graham, Damien Ramirez, Clarence Thomas, Crystallee Crain, Jack Bryson, C.D. Witherspoon, Fred Hampton, Jr., Tim Killings, Dan Siegel and more, plus cultural performances.
